Hi! My name is Sara. Every summer, I go to see my grandparents. They live in Beja. It's in the north of Tunisia. My grandfather has got a big farm. I love my grandparents. They are nice to me. Every day, we get up early. We eat cake and drink milk for breakfast then we go out and give food to the sheep, cows and rabbits. My favourite animal is a little white sheep. They have got four big dogs but they are nice. They have got many cats, too. My grandmother gives them bread and milk every morning. In the afternoon, we sleep from one to three o'clock. After we get up, we eat bread and butter or cheese and drink juice or milk. Then, we walk to the town. My grandfather buys meat for dinner. In the evening, we all sit under the big tree near the house. After dinner, I write letters to my friends, my grandfather listens to the radio and my grandmother goes to bed. Summer is nice on the farm.
